

Rajan Navani President - IDGS, and Founder & CEO JetSynthesys

With an aim to help India emerge as the Frugal Technology Innovation hub of the world, Rajan's mission is to digitally connect India to the world and you to India.

Vice Chairman and Managing Director of the Jetline Group of Companies, and Founder and CEO of Jetsynthesys, National Chairman of CII's (Confederation of Indian Industry's) Council on Future Businesses, India@75 and Artificial Intelligence Task Force. Trustee at Aspen Ananta India, Value Based Leadership. Member of the Board of Indiaspora, Code for India, and Aiesec.

Passionate about Gaming & Artificial Intelligence. Committed to creating a Digital India.

Rajan Navani

President - IDGS, and Founder & CEO JetSynthesys

Rajan Navani is the Chairman and Managing Director of the diversified 80+ year old Jetline Group, incorporated in the 1930s in Bangkok, Thailand and is personally providing leadership to the group's most innovative company, JetSynthesys.

JetSynthesys is a new age digital entertainment and technology company with a portfolio of world class products, platforms, and services, aiming to touch the digital lives of billions of consumers in India and around the globe. Under his leadership and strategic direction, JetSynthesys has built diversified business ecosystems in gaming and esports, music and video entertainment, wellness and livelihoods, fintech and social commerce currently serving millions of users globally and 100+ clients worldwide by harnessing advanced capabilities in Artificial Intelligence, Machine Learning, blockchain and AR/VR with a deepened focus and expertise in mobile game development, gaming live ops, localisation, marketing (both digital and offline), global partnerships, Web 3 and Metaverse.

Rajan is the National President of the Indian Digital Gaming Society (IDGS), Chairman of the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII)'s National Council on India@75 and founding trustee of the India@75 Foundation, through which he is working with multiple stakeholders, including government, corporates and civil society in helping build a Dream India of 2022, seventy-five years since its independence. He is the Founding Chairman of CII's Future Business Council, and the Past National Chairman of the CII Young Indians.

Rajan Navani

President - IDGS, and Founder & CEO JetSynthesys

He is a Government of India nominated CEO of the India Japan Business Leaders Forum, member of the India Sweden Business Leaders Forum and is a founding board member of Indiaspora, a powerful network linking the Indian American Diaspora with India. He is a global board member of the US-India Business Council (USIBC) and a member of the Purdue-India Executive Council. He is also a trustee of Aspen's Ananta Centre in India, a fellow of the Aspen India Leadership Initiative 2011–2012 and member of the Aspen Global Leadership Network, the world's foremost group on values-based leadership across all walks of life. He is also a BMW Herbert Quandt Foundation's Young World Leader. Rajan is also playing an active role in helping shape the US-India partnership on the government and business front and is Co-Chair of the Singapore India and member of the Israel India Strategic Dialogue. Apart from this, he is also the Founding Board Member of the 256 Network, the premier platform for large institutional investors interested in India and The GivingPi, India's first and exclusive family philanthropy network focused on growing the philanthropy circle for a transformed India. He is serving as the Co-Chair of CII's pioneering Silicon Valley initiative, 'Evolv™' and is a current member of the Trilateral Commission.

Rajan holds a master's degree in Electrical Engineering from Purdue University, West Lafayette, USA, under a NASA grant, majoring in Digital Satellite Imaging and Remote Sensing graduating with the award for outstanding academic achievement. A gold medallist at the University of Poona, India in the Bachelors of Electronics and Telecommunications program from College of Engineering Pune (COEP), Rajan also has a diploma in Business Management. He worked with NASA's Goddard Space Flight Centre, Maryland, USA before joining the family business.