

Gautam Virk

Esports WG Lead – IDGS and
Co-Founder, NODWIN Gaming

Gautam is a detailed and results-oriented media and events professional with a proven track record of creating captivating experiences. With over 7 years of experience, he worked in the different capacities of an editor, producer and director. At a personal level, he is an idealist by heart, and this is in sync with my work ethics. He is always enthusiastic about creating new engaging content while also focusing on building memorable moments. As the co-founder of NODWIN Gaming, he takes care of different aspects of business and events development, video and content production, while also meeting client targets and deadlines. His core expertise lies in developing and delivering large scale esports events in India and the Southeast Asia region.
