
Saloni Roy

Partner

Deloitte india

Saloni is a Partner at Deloitte's New Delhi/Gurgaon office, specialising in Indirect taxes. She has over 28 years' experience in tax and regulatory matters. Saloni has experience in matters pertaining to goods & service tax, customs, foreign trade policy, SEZ regulations apart from the erstwhile VAT, service tax and central excise duty. Saloni has been involved extensively in advisory, compliance, representation and litigation support for her clients. GST was introduced in India in July 2017 and is an evolving legislation – Saloni has been significantly involved on issues that have emerged since its introduction.

Saloni has advised various multinational organisations, Indian companies across industries. She has been involved in handling issues for clients in aviation, aerospace & defence, oil & gas, infrastructure, retail, telecom and information technology. She now focuses on Telecom, Media and Technology clients and also on Government.

She has been recognized in the list of leading tax advisors by International Tax Review World Tax in 2014-2023. She has also been recognized as Women Leaders in Tax 2015-2023 by International Tax Review.

She frequently contributes articles and thought papers to financial dailies and tax journals. She is an active member of various Chambers of Commerce.

