

Sean Hyunil Sohn

CEO, KRAFTON, India

- Sean Hyunil Sohn is an experienced professional with a career in project finance, shipping finance, China NPL investment, and equity research. He possesses strong understanding of project financing, syndicated loan market, equity analysis, valuation, legal and regulatory issues related to investments in China, management of SME in China.
- Prior to being appointed as the KRAFTON, India CEO, Sean was the Head of Corporate Development at KRAFTON, where he handled the M&A, investments (strategic VC) and new business. Sean has worked as a Senior Manager at Industrial and Commercial Bank of China; he is the former Shinhan Bank, Vice President and CFO Assistant, Beijing Oriental Communication.
- Sean started his career when he successfully initiated and launched a joint venture business of online game and animation with total budget of 3.7 billion KRW mostly financed by outside investors and co-produced relevant business plans and drafted contracts for the project.